Do not forget the social dance to be given at the Miller's armory on Monday evening, by the St. Patrick's T. A. and B. society. Arranging for the meeting of the Grand Lodge.

The members of Oriental Lodge No. 22, K. P., met in regular session at their hall last evening, and after going through the ordinary business of the lodge, arrangements were planned for the meeting of the state grand lodge on the 13th of February, in this city.

Messrs. Ogden H. Fethers, E. B. McKay, Charles Atwood, Keener Kimball, and C. B. Mosley were appointed an executive committee, and given plenipotentiary powers regarding all arrangements and details for the meeting and entertainment of the grand body. A grand banquet will be held on the evening of February 14th, at the Myers house, which, owing to the large number of representatives who are expected to be present, will be confined to members of the order and their ladies. The committee have already completed the arrangements with the proprietor of the Myers house for the banquet, and nothing will be left undone to make everything pleasant for the representatives who shall visit the city during the meeting of this grand body. The sessions of the grand lodge will probably be held in the hall of Oriental Lodge No. 22, but the meeting place has not yet been definitely determined. The representatives to the grand body from Oriental lodge, of this city are Ogden H. Fethers, W. T. Vaukirik, and J. B. Doe, Jr. Mr. Fethers holding over from last year, and Mr. Vaukirik being elected a representative for two years, and Mr. Doe for one year. There will be another meeting of Oriental lodge on Monday evening, when other details of the meeting of the grand lodge will be discussed.

THE REAPER DEATH.

MRS. FRANK P. SCHICKER.

Again we are reminded that when we come into the world we are born under the sentence of death. Mrs. Frank P. Schicker, whose severe illness had been reported in these columns, died at half-past three o'clock this morning, after a painful illness of ten days. One week ago last Sunday she was taken with a severe cold which quickly settled on her lungs. A malignant form of pneumonia followed, and despite all that medical skill and the closest possible attention could do, the disease could not be conquered, and death relieved her of her suffering this morning. The community will be deeply shocked by this sad intelligence. For many years she had been active in social circles and prominent in a business capacity, and by those traits of character that make one honored and esteemed, she had gained the abiding confidence and the deepest respect of a circle of friends that embraced the entire city. She was one of these kindly and generous spirits that made the community better by her having lived in it. Her heart was always warm to those she met, and her hand never failed to give when giving would make some one the happier. Mrs. Schicker was a woman of strong religious convictions, thoroughly and practically in earnest in the work of the church, and all that there was beautiful in religion shone out in her life. She leaves a husband, and a son, and three daughters to mourn her sad death, and these have the tenderest sympathy of hundreds in this city.

The deceased was a devoted member of Christ church, and the funeral services will be held in that church on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

MRS. J. W. D. PARKER.

Dr. L. J. Barrows received a dispatch yesterday afternoon, from Prof. W. D. Parker, at River Falls, stating that his mother had just died in that place, and that the remains would be brought to this city for burial. Mrs. Parker was aged about 70 years, and was the widow of the late Judge J. W. D. Parker, of this city. She, with her husband and family, came to this city in 1855, from Bradford, Vermont, and had since resided here, until last September, when her feeble health was such, that her only surviving child, Prof. W. D. Parker, induced her to break up her home in the city, and live with him at River Falls. Mrs. Parker was known and respected by many of the old residents of this city, and all who enjoyed her acquaintance, will now feel that they have lost a true and noble friend, and will deeply sympathize with her only child, who, of all her family, is left to mourn her taking away. The remains will probably arrive in this city to-morrow, and will be taken direct from the depot to the cemetery for interment.

Fire in Emerald Grove.

Last night between eleven and twelve o'clock the Emerald Grove hotel was discovered to be on fire, and despite the efforts of the citizens who congregated at the scene, the hotel was totally destroyed; most of the furniture was saved. The hotel was owned and kept by Mr. Peter Schenck, who is now absent in Dakota. The hotel was valued, we believe, at $3,500, and was insured for $20,000. The out buildings and barns, were all saved. At the time of the fire, there were no guests in the hotel, Mrs. Schenck and her family being the only occupants. It is supposed the fire was caused from a defective flue.

Beloit's Tramps.

The newspapers of Beloit are in the habit of finding fault with the city marshal and police force of this city, for no other reason than that they enforce the law, and preserve order in our city, and if now and then they arrest and confine a tramp in the county jail, the Beloit item writers jump at the fact and write a bait column article, not forgetting to ridicule our officers for doing their sworn duty, but at the same time endeavor to prejudice the people of the county against anything done in this city. They even insinuate that the only motive which prompts our police to make an arrest of a tramp is the fees which the county has to pay, and this accusation is continually harped upon by the press of Beloit until it has become a chronic disease among the police force of that city. They fail to tell the good people of Beloit that that model little town furnishes more tramps to the county, according to its population, than the city of Janesville. True, many tramps, perhaps more, are to be found in this city than other-where would, if the county jail was in some other city. They flock here for the sole purpose of being arrested and provided quarters and food at the county expense; but our officers, as a general rule, refuse to arrest them until they commit some depredation. Marshal Hogan makes it his business to be at the depots on the arrival of every train, and if any tramps are found, he orders them to leave the city, and he has been very successful in getting rid of many in this manner. The tramps are generally sent south; and it is a notorious fact, that most of those sent by way of Beloit, have been arrested in that city, and sent back to the county jail for a few days' board; the fees and mileage of the officers, amounting to more than the board of the tramp at the jail. If Marshal Hogan can succeed in driving nine out of ten tramps out of town without arrest or cost to the county, certainly Marshal North ought to be able to do a little business in this line, for North is certainly as fervent a looking officer as Hogan; but then, that is not the reason; Marshal Hogan receives no fees from this source, whereas, North makes his bread and butter, and increases the delicacies of his table by the number of arrests he makes. And that they may still further enrich their pockets at the expense of the poor, worthless tramp, they have adopted a new deal; which is to save the mileage between the two cities, which amounts to $2.80 for each prisoner. They give the jail commitment to the tramp, put him on the cars, and tell him to "git," and it has yet to be discovered on the records of the county clerk when a Beloit officer has failed to put in a claim for all the fees the statute allows. Yesterday two tramps, who had been arrested in Beloit and sentenced to ten days in the county jail, were sent here in this manner, in tramped with their own commitment papers. They arrived here, and commenced "doing the city" in great style. One of them stole a pair of axle grease and offered it for sale at one of our livery stables but before the sale was made, Marshal Hogan and Officer Smith laid hands on him and recovered the property. The other fellow stuck his commitment paper into the marshal's face and defied him to molest him during the ten days there named. The marshal cared for him, nevertheless. We all know that this question concerning the tramps has been one that has puzzled the people of this county for some years, and no effectual remedy has yet been found to rid society of the nuisance. Our county officers have, in this city, frequently lectured the policeman, for making an arrest, until the tramp commits some other act against the law. They are sent here from all parts of the county, for a few days board at the jail, but when the time expires, they are all to be disposed of in some way. Now then, if the good people of Beloit will take away the fees of Marshal North, as they have been taken away from Marshal Hogan in this city, there will not be much difficulty in the way of a tramp making his escape over the state line, especially when once under way in that direction.
